

(California – Photograph Album) Album of Photographs Depicting the Travels of an unidentified family to Yosemite, San Diego and the Missions, and elsewhere in California, circa 1920s

oblong quarto, approximately 200 mounted photographs, plus several laid in photographs, photograph album worn, back-strip missing, images in very good, clean condition.

The images, which generally measure 3 ½ x 4 ½ inches, document an unidentified family's travels to Yosemite, San Diego and the Missions, a parade in Los Angeles, and other places in California. The sights and scenery are documented as well as accommodations, roadside events, suburban houses, family members, et cetera.
