

(Broadside) “Let ‘Er Go Gallagher!” Twenty-Eighth Annual Parade and Review of the Ithaca Fire Departm’t and Grand Prize Tournament at Ithaca, N.Y., Wednesday, Sept. 7, 1887 Grand Parade, 2 P.M. $ 100 in Cash Prizes Competition Open to the World Steamer Trials and Exhibit of City Water Works! Exhilaration and Illumination in the Evening! The Board of Engineers of the I. F.D. cordially invite the firemen and fire organizations of neighboring communities to attend and participate in the festivities above promulgated. E. E. Robinson, Chief Engineer. H. L. Haskin, 1st Ass’t Engineer. Frank Cole, 2d Ass’t Engineer. For Full Particulars see Small Bills and Newspapers.

Ithaca: Ithaca Journal Job Printer, 1887, large broadside, measuring 55 x 24 inches, printed in red and blue ink on white paper stock, in a variety of large display types. Some minor ruffling to bottom edge of sheet and edges, few short splits along horizontal folds, else a very good copy. $ 650.00